

FORMER TALISMAN PROPERTY
ADVISORY TASK FORCE
UPDATE 14.01

FORMER TALISMAN PROPERTY ADVISORY TASK FORCE IN FULL SWING

January 17, 2014

The former Talisman Property Advisory Task Force is moving forward in preparation of the community engagement process.

The Task Force has been meeting since December 13, 2013 and has developed the following key goals and objectives for the revitalization and redevelopment of the former Talisman property:

- Economic benefit for Grey Highlands and the greater community
- Enhanced quality of life for Grey Highlands residents and the greater community

The Task Force has enlisted the support of the University of Guelph through the Rural Planning and Development program to assist in the community engagement phase for the property.

Task Force Chair Grant McGlaughlin commented, "The members of the Task Force bring diverse perspectives which promote well rounded discussions and recommendations".

Mayor Wayne Fitzgerald stated, "We are blessed to have such strong expertise and volunteerism available within our community".

The Task Force will be holding community consultations in the Municipality of Grey Highlands. The following are dates for the sessions.

Wednesday February 19, 2014 from 7:00 pm – 9:00 pm @ the Flesherton KinPlex

Saturday February 22, 2014 from 10:00 am – 12:00 pm @ the Kimberley Hall
